

Broadcast airwaves are a public resource, and media ownership is a matter of public policy. Your agency is entrusted with managing media ownership for public benefit, not for private profit. You must not allow the wealthiest corporations to dominate our media even more exclusively than they already do. You must not make crucial policy decisions without fully informing the public and allowing open public debate. Please DO NOT hold the vote as scheduled on Monday.